Auto Mechanics Skills Center

The Auto Mechanics Skills Center, though still in an early stage, is providing a unique opportunity for students who have interest and ability in the auto mechanics field. The Skills Center was started because of a great shortage of auto mechanics and because students could not be given full training as auto mechanics in our high school program. Students may receive training three hours a day for two years and upon graduation are capable of being employed as full time auto mechanics.

Frosh Have Winning Season

Under the coaching of Reggie Ivey and Wayne Kellogg this year's Freshman team was undefeated. For the complete season, opposing teams were held to only 25 points, while the Coldwater offense had 153 points. A strong line held the opposition to a little or no scoring. The frosh team now has a record of 12 consecutive victories.

DAR GIRL

Leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism—these are the prime characteristics of the DAR Girl. Each year, an outstanding senior girl is chosen by the faculty as the best representation of all these traits. This year's DAR Girl is Linda Stokes.

LINDA STOKES

LOUANN CROWDER

DAR HISTORY AWARD

The DAR History Award is presented to the Junior who is excellent in United States History and recommended by the History Department of CHS. The 1965 History Award went to Louann Crowder. Both these awards, the DAR Girl and the DAR History Award are sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Valedictorian

Marcia has been active during her school years. She was a Freshman class Treasurer and Junior class Secretary. Also she was vice president of the Thespian. She worked on the yearbook staff for three years as business manager her Junior year and Academic Editor her Senior year. She was editor of the Cardinal Chatter, a member of The National Honor Society, a member of Quill and Scroll, and participated in forensics and debate. As though these were not enough she was able to maintain a very high academic average.

Marcia Gomley

Linda Stokes

Linda has been active in a number of activities. She was vice president of the Senior class, was 2 years Commission Clerk, a member of The National Honor Society. Linda worked on the yearbook staff three years. She was a band member 3 years and a majorette.
